BWL Notes

Family name most likely derived from village of Blatherwycke 5 miles NE of Corby, Northants, half way to Stamford, Lincs.
In 1851 census for Notts., BLATHERWICK families are concentrated in a few villages: Gunthorpe, Bulcote, Lowdham & Hoveringham.
The first name William appears to be very popular.

Family groupings derived from microfiche 1.2.1748-8.9.1823 (Burton Joyce baptisms) & 1851 census returns for Burton & Bulcote
(HO 107/2128 + HO 107/2134)

Notes relating to ELIZABETH WALKER (nee BLATHERWICK)

Elizabeth was approx. 5 months pregnant at the time of her marriage. None of her sons were named Samuel after her father. This may indicate that she was estranged from her family - she married in her groom's parish or it may indicate that she had already born a son of that name! She was educated to some degree as she signed her name on her marriage certificate, unlike her husband George who could only manage a X. It is interesting to note, therefore that her eldest son Thomas could not write his name at all or read - so she could not have been very well educated or one would suppose she would have taught him. When her husband George died after 5 months of illness Elizabeth was approx. 46 years old. She had 9 living children ranging in ages from Thomas aged 27 to Ellen aged 4yrs.

In Oxton churchyard there are WALKER graves and also some impressive BLATHERWICK graves. These are situated behind the large yew trees to the right of the Church as you view it from the road. They date from about 1736 - 18**. It is possible they were relatives of Elizabeth.

George is believed to have had a small farm at Greaves Lane, Nr Edingley/Halam however he died in Oxton, so if this is true maybe he died at the home of one of his children. Greaveslane is recorded as being a separate hamlet from Edingley and Halam in early documents.

On his death certificate he is recorded as being a Cottager.

On the death certificate of his widow Elizabeth some 39 years later it is recorded that she was the Widow of George Walker Farmer.

Not been able to find Henry on the 1841 or any of the subsequent Census but if my assumption is correct about Ann ROCKLEY bp 1819 and Ann BLATHERWICK bu 1840 being the same person it would appear that he became a widower within 3 months of his marriage. There is a William BLATHERWICK with a wife named Ann on the 1841 Census in Arnold (living on High St) but nothing to tie Henry to them - no baptism entry found in Arnold.
